

The Dentist

Taking out a tooth

The dentist is taking out one of my teeth.

My tooth is too badly damaged for the dentist to repair it.

I can have MEOPA gas to help me feel more relaxed.

The dentist makes my tooth go to sleep with an injection.

- The dentist puts a product on my gum so I don't feel the injection.

- He gently injects me with the needle next to the bad tooth.

The product tastes strange.

- The dentist rinses my mouth with water.

The nurse sucks out the water at the same time.

- My face feels strange.

- It doesn't hurt when the dentist touches my tooth.

He moves my tooth with an instrument.

- I can hear the sound in my ears.

My tooth moves more and more, then the dentist pulls it out gently.

There is a little blood, so the dentist puts a cotton pad in my mouth.

● I bite down hard on the pad between my teeth.

When the dentist takes out my tooth:

I must wait 2 hours before I can eat.

FOOD

I must not put my tongue in the gap.

● To stop it hurting.

- Sometimes I have to take antibiotics to stop infections.

- The next day I rinse my mouth with a product to stop infections.
I must do this after every meal
