

The Dentist

A visit in my wheelchair

For a simple check-up, I can stay in my wheelchair.

For treatment, I can stay in my wheelchair:

- if my chair tilts backwards with a headrest, or

- if the dentist has a machine to tilt my chair backwards.

This machine is only found in specialist centres.

If I can, I move myself to the dentist's chair.

- The dentist lowers the chair.

- I change seats.

- I can ask for help.

- I lie down on the chair.

- The dentist raises the chair.

If my wheelchair has a custom-moulded seat,

- the dentist needs permission for me to get out of my chair.
